The Learning Plaza presents Dr Robert Isaacs, the 2015 Western Australian of the Year, who will launch the Annual Indigenous Literacy Day Great Book Swap on Tuesday 25th August at 10.00 am in The Learning Plaza.

Dr Robert Isaacs was the first Aboriginal person elected to Local Government in WA. As an Aboriginal Elder he has helped shape opportunities and facilities for Aboriginal People. He was named 2015 Western Australian of the Year for his work over the last 50 years in helping to improve the lives of Aboriginal People.

Bring in a pre-loved book and swap it for someone else’s, all for a gold coin donation. All monies raised go to the Indigenous Literacy Foundation which aims to raise literacy levels and improve the lives and opportunities of Aboriginal Australians living in remote and isolated regions.

The book swap runs until Thursday 27th 2015.
