Entrance Scholarship Conditions

1. Academic Scholarships are awarded on the basis of the academic results of the test assessed by the Australian Council for Educational Research. A sample collection of questions which provides familiarisation with the test and examination format can be bought directly from ACER via ACER Assessment Services, SST, Private Bag 55, CAMBERWELL VIC 3124 for which there is a small cost (including postage and packing and GST). or by visiting the ACER website: www.acer.edu.au/sst/practice.html.

2. Where applicable, a subsequent interview will be held.

3. The Music Scholarship is awarded on the basis of the test administered on that day. No marked papers will be returned to any individuals. The College’s decision is final.

4. As an inclusive and equal-opportunity learning community, St Brigid’s College presents the Friends of St Brigid’s Scholarship. This Scholarship has been specifically created for those families who have previously perceived St Brigid’s as an economically unviable option for their daughter’s learning needs.
5. Although St Brigid’s College is a Catholic school, the Scholarships will be awarded according to Item 1, not according to religious denomination.

6. Students already at St Brigid’s are eligible to sit for the Academic and Music Scholarship examinations and must apply by the due date. Students who are not enrolled at St Brigid’s are also eligible.

7. All Scholarships are reviewed annually and may be forfeited if the student's attitude and performance does not meet expectations.

8. The value of the Scholarship is for tuition fees and does not cover Boarding fees, text books or amenities fees.

9. Scholarships may be accepted only by those students not in receipt of another Scholarship.

Dear Parents, Guardians and Applicants

During 2014 St Brigid’s College will be offering a three year Music Scholarship commencing in Year 7 2015. The Scholarship covers instrumental or vocal tuition costs only through the College’s instrumental programme and, if required, allows for access to a College instrument for the duration of the scholarship.

On being awarded the Scholarship, the awardee agrees to the following conditions for the duration of the Scholarship:

2015 Music Scholarship Conditions:

1. Tuition is paid for tutors only with the College’s Instrumental Programme.
2. Tuition will be paid for one instrument, or Voice, only.
3. Tuition fees will only be paid to the amount stated for instrumental lessons in the College Instrumental Programme.
4. The recipient’s adherence to the conditions may be reviewed at any time by Principal.
5. The conditions of the Scholarship may be reviewed at any time by the Principal.
6. Failure to meet requirements may result in the termination of the Scholarship.
7. The Scholarship requires that the student:
   a. Participates in instrumental lessons through the College instrumental program
   b. Undertakes the study of music as a course option.
   c. Actively participates in the College choir and appropriate instrumental ensembles,
   d. Positively represents the College and its values.
   e. If the student uses a College instrument that due care is taken of the instrument.

Applicants must complete the required Application Form which is available from the College website. Applicants are required to sit a Scholarship Examination and need to arrive no later than thirty minutes prior to the Examination.

There are three components to the Scholarship examination:

Audiation: Listening: Pitch/Rhythm

Audition: Applicants are required to perform a piece from their repertoire between 3-5 minutes in duration.
Interview: Applicants will be interviewed about their aspirations, experiences and commitment to music and the College.

The selection panel will consist of the Acting Curriculum Team Leader of Arts and representatives from the music department. The panel will make a recommendation to the College Principal, Dr Amelia Toffoli, for a final decision. The Principal may also decide to interview prospective candidates and their family.

Applicants will be notified as soon as possible of any decision made regarding the Examination.

Further information is available from the Acting Curriculum Team Leader of Arts by contacting Ms Amanda Bullow - bullow.amanda@stbrigidswa.edu.au.

With kind regards

Dr Amelia Toffoli
Principal
